Sir,

Adverting to the opening of the Chitaldrug-Chickjajur Railway on the 5th May 1921 by the Dewan of Mysore, I have the honour to state that a sum of Rs.446-6-8 was spent by the District Board for the opening ceremony in anticipation of Government sanction. The opening ceremony was suddenly arranged and there was not sufficient time to obtain sanction of Government before incurring the expenditure. I request you, therefore, to kindly obtain sanction of Government to the expenditure incurred and communicate early.

The amount is met from the provision made in the current year's budget for the Railway construction work.

The resolution of the Board on the subject is enclosed herein for reference.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
your most obedient servant,

President, District Board.
